

Interlibrary Loans

Are you looking for something not owned by our library?
Interlibrary Loan would like to help!

Interlibrary loan (abbreviated ILL, and sometimes called document delivery or resource sharing) is a service whereby a user of one library can borrow items or receive photocopies of documents that are owned by another library, anywhere in the world!

FIRST TIME USERS

First time users should learn the basics before diving into the world of ILLs.

ILL REQUESTS

To make a request from home, please fill out our ILL Online Request form. It's easy and quick.

You can also stop by the library to fill out a form in person, or contact ILL Services for more information.

ILL INFO

If you have a complex request or any questions, the answers may be in the links below.
