

CITY OF HOMER
HOMER, ALASKA

MAYOR'S PROCLAMATION

National Library Week
April 8 – 14, 2012

WHEREAS, Libraries have historically served as our nation's great equalizers of knowledge by providing free access to all; and

WHEREAS, Libraries work to meet the changing needs of their users, including collecting books and media in a variety of formats, expanding outreach services and increasing programming; and

WHEREAS, Our nation's libraries provide a forum for diverse ideas and points of view that help us better understand each other and ourselves; and

WHEREAS, Librarians are trained professionals, helping people of all ages and backgrounds find and interpret the information they need to live, learn and work in a challenging economy; and

WHEREAS, Librarians design and offer programs to meet their community's economic needs, providing residents with financial information, resume writing tools, and job seeking resources; and

WHEREAS, Libraries are part of the American dream, places for education, opportunity and lifelong learning; and

WHEREAS, Libraries, librarians, library workers and supporters across America are celebrating National Library Week.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, James C. Hornaday, Mayor of the City of Homer, do hereby proclaim:

NATIONAL LIBRARY WEEK - April 8 - 14, 2012

and encourage all residents to visit the library this week to take advantage of the wonderful library resources available at your library.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I HAVE HEREUNTO SET MY HAND AND CAUSED the Seal of the City of Homer, Alaska to be affixed this 9th day of April, 2012.
