

CITY OF HOMER
HOMER, ALASKA

ORDINANCE 84-29

AN ORDINANCE AMENDING HOMER MUNICIPAL CODE 1.24.050 C. REGULAR MEETINGS, TO CHANGE THE MEETING DAY TO THURSDAY

WHEREAS, the majority of legal holidays are scheduled on Mondays, by Federal Law which became effective after the Homer City Ordinance establishing regular meeting days on Mondays was adopted necessitating rescheduling of several meetings annually.

WHEREAS, Council agendas and informational packets, for Thursday meetings, could be made available from Monday at 5:PM, allowing three full working days for the public and Council to be aware of matters scheduled for decisions at the coming Council meeting, and

WHEREAS, legal and display advertising deadlines could be more efficiently met, and

WHEREAS, the City Council regular meeting agenda could be published in its entirety in the Homer News which is available from noon Thursday, and

WHEREAS, the City staff and Attorney have responded favorably to the change, and

WHEREAS, it has become increasingly apparent that regular Council meeting might better serve the public and the elected and appointed officials by occurring on Thursday;

NOW THEREFORE, THE CITY OF HOMER ORDAINS:

Section 1.24.050 By-Laws for Council procedure sub-section c. Regular meetings, is amended with the following:

1. Second and fourth Thursdays (Mondays) of each month at seven-thirty p.m.
