CITY OF HOMER
HOMER, ALASKA

RESOLUTION 84-9a

A RESOLUTION MAXIMIZING THE USE OF THE LEGISLATIVE LIAISON.

WHEREAS, the Homer City Council desires to maximize the legislative liaison effort and also to minimize the future cost of such efforts, and

WHEREAS, the Council recognizes the need for their own personal participation and the participation of the Mayor as the principle dignitary of the City, and

WHEREAS, the Council recognizes the need for education as to the actual workings of the State Legislative Process;

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED:

1. That trips to Juneau in the 1984 Legislative Session be coordinated through the City Manager with the paid liaison, Mitch Gravo.
2. That, when possible, visits be made by more than one member at a time to reduce the associated costs.
3. That each visit be followed by a written report from a member of the group to the Council.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that such trips will be funded as authorized by Ordinance 83-31.

Dated at Homer, Alaska, this 13th day of February, 1984.
