

CITY OF HOMER
HOMER, ALASKA

RESOLUTION 84-39

Intro:
Snyder

A RESOLUTION PERTAINING TO NON-ELECTED ADMINISTRATORS

WHEREAS, the City Manager is not an elected official, any more so than is the City Attorney, Finance Director, or the City Engineer and,

WHEREAS, only the City Council and the Mayor are elected by the voters, and

WHEREAS, having the City Manager sit with the elected officials suggests that the Manager has similar powers to those of the Council and the Mayor,

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Homer City Council directs that henceforth and hereafter the City Manager sit at the end of the horse shoe table, and that only the elected City Council and the Mayor sit behind the Podium as befits their duly elected official positions.

DATED at Homer, Alaska, this 14th day of May, 1984.

Erle Cooper, Mayor

ATTEST

Kathleen Herold, City Clerk