

CITY OF HOMER
HOMER, ALASKA

RESOLUTION 84-99

A RESOLUTION ESTABLISHING A FIRE AND LIFE SAFETY STEERING COMMITTEE, ADVISORY TO THE HOMER CITY COUNCIL, AND PROVIDING FOR THE CONDITIONS AND DURATION OF THAT COMMITTEE.

WHEREAS, the adoption of fire and life safety codes may be a benefit to local taxpayers; and,

WHEREAS, the Homer City Council has determined that it is desirable to study, revise and/or adopt appropriate codes and ordinances to implement necessary fire and life safety codes; and,

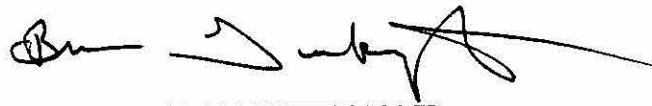

WHEREAS, the Homer City Council is also desirous of reviewing standards for minimum fire flow and municipal licensing;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the Common Council of the City of Homer, Alaska that there is hereby established a fire and life safety steering committee, advisory to the Homer City Council, subject to the following conditions:

1. There shall be seven (7) members of the committee representing the City Council, the Homer Volunteer Fire Department Board of Directors, the Homer Advisory Planning Commission, bankers, realtors, developers and the general public. City staff shall be advisory only to the committee.
2. Appointment of the committee is by the Mayor and shall be confirmed by the Homer City Council.
3. The committee shall be delegated the authority to review, revise and/or recommend appropriate codes and ordinances necessary to implement an effective public fire and life safety inspection program within the City limits of Homer.
4. The committee may select necessary professional services to perform the work outlined by the committee, subject to the approval of the Homer City Manager.
5. The duration of the committee shall be for a period of six (6) months and shall expire on April 1, 1985. The committee is expected to present to the Council, in final form, a recommended ordinance, including adoption by reference of the necessary and applicable codes, as well as recommendations regarding minimum standards for fire flow and municipal licensing within the City limits of Homer.

DATED at Homer, Alaska this 8th day of Oct., 1984.

CITY OF HOMER

Erle Cooper, Mayor
