

Beauregard Burgess – an issues-based candidate:

YES:

1. Protect & sustainably utilize our fisheries and natural resources
2. Invest in local agriculture & clean energy
3. Extend City services to serve ALL of Homer (not just downtown)
4. Keep local talent & money here, by promoting small, local businesses & non-profits and a regulatory environment that actually supports them
5. Provide outstanding education, activities & community support for youth
6. Keep roads and core infrastructure in good repair
7. Support our firefighters, EMS and police with resources they need to serve our community

NO:

1. No, Pebble Mine.
2. No, wastefully high by-catch limits for salmon & halibut
3. No, excessive micro-management of citizens and businesses
4. No, unfunded mandates, regulations or laws that cannot or will not be fairly enforced
5. No, misleading citizens about issues

I believe in investing wisely in the LONG-TERM health, resilience and economic diversity of our community and protecting the health of our land and water. You will not always agree with me, but you will always know where I stand and why, and I'll always listen. My record in office speaks to this integrity. Your vote and support is sincerely appreciated!
