

Call to Artists – Public Art at the Homer Public Library

Work Media: Looking for local artists to exhibit two-dimensional work (paintings, prints, collage, photography, etc.) in the Fireplace Reading Room at the Homer Public Library at 500 Hazel Avenue, Homer, Alaska.

Exhibit Display Area: Two hanging spaces in the Fireplace Reading Area of the Homer Public Library, 48”x96” and “96x96”. Work does not need to “fill” these spaces. Work may be hung gallery or parlor style.

Entry Requirements: Work may not be for sale. Two-dimensional work only.

Sample Requirements

1. Email cover letter describing exhibition proposal to erin@friendshomerlibrary.org.
2. Attach digital images of proposed work (actual work to be exhibited, not samples). Images should be presented in JPEG format with image size set to 72 dpi resolution, 600x1000 pixel image size approximately (large enough for good projection quality).
3. Artist Resume including biography, educational background, and exhibition record. Extensive exhibition history is not required of the artist. Looking for established and emerging artists in the Homer Public Library Service Area.

Timeline: Exhibit during 2014, three months starting either in January, April, July, or October

Entries Due: December 2, 2013 at 5pm.

Selection Process: The Community Artwork Selection Panel consists of one member of the Library Advisory Board, one member of the Friends of the Homer Public Library, one member of the Public Arts Committee and the Director of the Homer Public Library. The selection process will be blind, the identity of the artist not included with the work.

Notification to artist: Artists will be notified by December 15, 2013.

Accepted Artwork: Must be ready to hang, either stretched or framed. No unframed, not matted, or otherwise unsupported paper artwork accepted. Fiber arts must be ready to hang from standard hanging equipment. Artists accept all responsibility for the work throughout the exhibit period.

Delivery: Artwork must be delivered one week before scheduled exhibit.

Pickup Artwork by: one week after exhibit is scheduled to end.

Sales: Artwork may not be for sale. Contact information of the artist will be exhibited.

Contact: Erin Hollowell, coordinator of the Friends of the Homer Public Library erin@friendshomerlibrary.org or 907-491-1001.